By Anthony Navikonis
The biggest thing to consider is that Lithuanian custom requires that you bring something to your host family. I had to do it several times, And, when I forgot the gift that I had brought from the US, I bought flowers. I remembered from the book that you give an odd number of flowers not even number of flowers. Even numbers and white flowers are for funerals. I chose to give 3 red roses for the time being and later give them the Vera Bradley wallets I brought from the US, I also found the history to be very interesting. I even visited the holocaust memorial in Kaunas.

Great books for travel. I used this in Lithuania and even my country guide didn't know a few things this book had. It was a perfect prep for the trip, and made you understand what is behind some of the cultural experiences. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Helpful Overview
