John Avery : Progress, Poverty and Population: Re-reading Condorcet, Godwin and Malthus before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Progress, Poverty and Population: Re-reading Condorcet, Godwin and Malthus:

This work traces the history of a debate which took place among the economists, political philosophers and writers of the late 18th and early 19th centuries, about whether the benefits of scientific progress would be nullified by the growth of the global population.
